

Circles
Moving Into the Neighborhood
March 1, 2015

*The Word became flesh and blood, and moved into the neighborhood.
We saw the glory with our own eyes, the one-of-a-kind glory, like Father,
like Son, Generous inside and out, true from start to finish.*

- John 1:14 (The Message)

God's Redemptive Plan

What was Jesus modeling for us through the Incarnation?

1. I need to _____ like Jesus _____.

- Luke 12:34

2. I need to _____ (or _____)

3. I need to _____ with other people.

- Ways Jesus did this:

- _____
- _____
- _____

*And he has committed to us the message of reconciliation.
We are therefore Christ's ambassadors, as though God were making his appeal through us.*

2 Corinthians 5:19-20 (TNIV)

Circles
Moving Into the Neighborhood
March 1, 2015

*The Word became flesh and blood, and moved into the neighborhood.
We saw the glory with our own eyes, the one-of-a-kind glory, like Father,
like Son, Generous inside and out, true from start to finish.*

- John 1:14 (The Message)

God's Redemptive Plan

What was Jesus modeling for us through the Incarnation?

1. I need to _____ like Jesus _____.

- Luke 12:34

2. I need to _____ (or _____)

3. I need to _____ with other people.

- Ways Jesus did this:

- _____
- _____
- _____

*And he has committed to us the message of reconciliation.
We are therefore Christ's ambassadors, as though God were making his appeal through us.*

2 Corinthians 5:19-20 (TNIV)

The Incarnation and Me

Take some time this week to think about the following questions:

1. Have you ever thought about God pursuing you even today?
Why might He still be coming after you? What is He saying to you this week?
2. How does it make you feel to think about a God who longs for you and traded in the life of His Son so that every aspect of your life could be redone, renewed, redeemed?
3. Since God is still pursuing every person today, think for a moment— are there people you have given up on or written off? Make a list of those people by name, and consider what it might look like for you to have the same longings for people that God does. What can you do for them?
4. Have you taken time to listen to the unique spiritual stories of the people around you? If not, whom might you schedule a coffee time with? Don't make it weird; just say, "I thought about you today, and I'd love to sit down and hear more about your story."
5. Fill in these sentences. When I think about really living incarnationally, I'm most afraid of _____. When I think about really living incarnationally, I'm most excited and hopeful about _____.

The Incarnation and Me

Take some time this week to think about the following questions:

1. Have you ever thought about God pursuing you even today?
Why might He still be coming after you? What is He saying to you this week?
2. How does it make you feel to think about a God who longs for you and traded in the life of His Son so that every aspect of your life could be redone, renewed, redeemed?
3. Since God is still pursuing every person today, think for a moment— are there people you have given up on or written off? Make a list of those people by name, and consider what it might look like for you to have the same longings for people that God does. What can you do for them?
4. Have you taken time to listen to the unique spiritual stories of the people around you? If not, whom might you schedule a coffee time with? Don't make it weird; just say, "I thought about you today, and I'd love to sit down and hear more about your story."
5. Fill in these sentences. When I think about really living incarnationally, I'm most afraid of _____. When I think about really living incarnationally, I'm most excited and hopeful about _____.