The Kingdom and Confrontation

Take some time this week to think about the following questions:

1. What does the word “gospel” mean for me? Consider the definition on the front of the notes page. How does that definition expand on how I have thought about the good news of God’s kingdom?
2. How have I experienced God’s kingdom breaking through in my life beyond salvation? Where do I see God’s kingdom breaking through in the life of someone I am praying for? In the life of someone in one of my circles who doesn’t profess faith in Christ?
3. Read John 8:2-11. How was this woman confronted with the gospel? Can I identify the roles we talked about in this week’s message?
4. Read Matthew 7:1-5. What is God speaking to me about how I view myself, my own sin, and my relationship with others?
5. Consider who I’ve been trying to confront. Say a simple prayer over them today, releasing them to the Holy Spirit while asking God to give me ways to be kind to them.
