

The Parables
Simple Stories. Profound Truth.
June 7, 2015

Webster's dictionary defines parable as "a usually short fictitious story that illustrates a moral attitude or a religious principle."

"Parables hide the truth so that we need to do more than simply 'hear with our ears' or 'read with our eyes' on a literal level; we have to invest ourselves in an imaginative search for meaning – a meaning that will surprise us when we discover it for ourselves."

- Brian McLaren (from The Secret Message of Jesus)

The Parable of the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25-37)

The question isn't "who is my neighbor?"
The question is "what must I do to be a neighbor?"

1. Being a neighbor means I _____.
 - James 2:14-17 - Faith should be _____ by _____.
2. Being a neighbor means I _____.
 - Richard Foster: "_____ picks and chooses whom to serve. _____ is indiscriminate in its ministry."
3. Being a neighbor means I _____ the _____.
 - Matthew 5:43-48

"Now which of these three would you say was a neighbor to the man who was attacked by bandits?" Jesus asked.
The man replied, "The one who showed him mercy."
Then Jesus said, "Yes, now go and do the same."

Luke 10:36-37 (NLT)
