Questions for Discussion

1. Talk about a time in your life when you were on the receiving end of forgiveness? How did that make you feel?
2. When you read Paul's instructions to "forgive as the Lord forgave you", what comes to mind? What does that mean?
3. In what ways is Jesus' approach to forgiveness different than our culture's approach?
4. Why is it necessary to identify or "call out" an offense? What are some good ways to do that? What are some pitfalls to avoid?
5. What is Jesus getting at when he says we are supposed to forgive someone 70 X 7 times? Talk about why Jesus has to tell us this.
6. It's been said, "forgive and forget." Is that possible or realistic for us? When is that healthy? When might that be not so healthy?
7. In what ways is forgiveness a gift to our fellow believer? To the culture around us?
