

One Another
Correct One Another
November 29, 2015

Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom...

Colossians 3:16 (NIV)

What does the word “admonish” mean?

1. Webster’s dictionary defines it this way: “to warn or notify of a fault; to reprove gently or kindly, but seriously; to exhort”
2. Admonish = Noutheteo (Greek) = _____
or _____.

Why is this important to learn?

How do I give correction?

1. I need to know _____ to _____.
2. I need to know _____ to _____.
3. I need to know _____ I am _____.
 - Luke 6:41-42

How do I receive correction?

1. I need to _____ what is said.
 - This is about _____.
2. I need to _____ what is said.
 - This takes a great deal of _____.
3. I need to _____ what is said.

One Another
Correct One Another
November 29, 2015

Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom...

Colossians 3:16 (NIV)

What does the word “admonish” mean?

1. Webster’s dictionary defines it this way: “to warn or notify of a fault; to reprove gently or kindly, but seriously; to exhort”
2. Admonish = Noutheteo (Greek) = _____
or _____.

Why is this important to learn?

How do I give correction?

1. I need to know _____ to _____.
2. I need to know _____ to _____.
3. I need to know _____ I am _____.
 - Luke 6:41-42

How do I receive correction?

1. I need to _____ what is said.
 - This is about _____.
2. I need to _____ what is said.
 - This takes a great deal of _____.
3. I need to _____ what is said.

Questions for Discussion

1. Why is it important for believers to learn how to admonish or correct each other?
2. In your opinion, how does correcting someone usually play out in our culture? What are similarities and/or differences to how correcting someone is handled within the Church?
3. Is it easier for you to give correction or receive correction? Why?
4. Talk about a time when you received correction or gave correction and it went well. Why was the conversation successful? What helped produce the positive outcome?
5. Read Luke 6:41-42. What is Jesus teaching us in how we approach others, especially in terms of admonishing one another?
6. Pastor Craig Groeschel said, "There is a massive difference between thinking critically and being critical." Talk about the difference between the two and how that applies to correcting one another.

Questions for Discussion

1. Why is it important for believers to learn how to admonish or correct each other?
2. In your opinion, how does correcting someone usually play out in our culture? What are similarities and/or differences to how correcting someone is handled within the Church?
3. Is it easier for you to give correction or receive correction? Why?
4. Talk about a time when you received correction or gave correction and it went well. Why was the conversation successful? What helped produce the positive outcome?
5. Read Luke 6:41-42. What is Jesus teaching us in how we approach others, especially in terms of admonishing one another?
6. Pastor Craig Groeschel said, "There is a massive difference between thinking critically and being critical." Talk about the difference between the two and how that applies to correcting one another.