Questions for Discussion

1. In this week's message we talked about three ways to serve one another: listening, helping, and submitting ourselves. Which of these three comes most easily to you? Which is the most difficult? Why?
2. Richard Foster writes, "Nothing disciplines the inordinate desires of the flesh like service, and nothing transforms that desires of the flesh like serving in hiddenness. The flesh whines against service but screams against hidden service." What does Foster mean by this? What makes hidden service so difficult?
3. Compare and contrast how the world defines greatness versus how Jesus defines greatness in Mark 10:43-44.
4. Talk about a time you served. What did you do to make it happen? (i.e. slowing down, creating margin, confronting your ego)
5. Along the same lines as Question #4, talk about a time when you had an opportunity to serve (listening, helping, or submitting yourself) but you did not respond.
