

TITLE: “The Set Up”
BIBLE STORIES---RUTH & NAOMI
“The Set Up”
July 10, 2016

Imagine if everyone in your life had the goal of setting you up to _____!

We need to be reminded that one day someone _____, someone took a _____ from their own plans, in order to tell you/me about Jesus, and how He could breathe new life into us.

If we don't work together to help each generation _____, we all _____!

_____ comes before connection. Ruth voluntarily spoke words that would _____ her and _____ her to Naomi for her lifetime.

Commitment says, “When you have nothing, I will still bring my _____. When you are at your worst, I will be at my _____. I will be by you when it's not _____.”

When you are living to set others up to win, you have a _____ to go places when others are weary.

We are _____ to _____ others.

What Ruth _____ became Naomi's _____.
When we all set one another up to win, _____ blessing becomes _____ blessing, _____ mountaintop becomes _____ mountaintop, _____ breakthrough becomes _____ breakthrough.

What you _____, you will _____.

Are you aware that because of her kindness to Naomi, and the child that was ultimately born, Ruth ended up in the _____ of Jesus Christ Himself?